NO BEER AT HEADQUARTERS.

El Paso, Texas, July 3, 1912.
Editor El Paso Herald:

In your paper for Tuesday, July 2, on page 12, you publish an item under the heading "Beer for the Faithful in Ring Headquarters." In which you state that "a beer garden has been improvised in the basement of the Democratic 'ring' headquarters at 420 San Antonio street, and that 'beer will be served to the loyal ones who call,' etc.

I have been in charge of the headquarters at 420 San Antonio since they were opened and I assure you that no beer garden has been opened in such basement or elsewhere about said headquarters, and no beer has been served or will be served there or about said headquarters.

Feeling assured that you will not willfully misrepresent any one, I request you to correct such statement and invite you to call and at any time to verify this statement. I am,

Yours respectfully,
Jos. W. Ward.

(A prominent El Paso business man just an anti-ringing man—told The Herald the headquarters had been fixed up for serving beer; that the basement was full of tables for this purpose, and that it was the purpose of the campaign managers to serve such refreshment. This was the source of the item published.—Editor.)

FIGHT FANS BEGIN TO GATHER AT VEGAS

Johnson to Weigh in at 212; Flynn Is Confident of Victory.

East Las Vegas, N. M., July 3.—A few more fight enthusiasts were added last night and today to those already gathered here to witness the Johnson-Flynn battle tomorrow; but the main body of spectators will not arrive until tonight, when several special trains are due. Others will come in tomorrow morning and several will reach here just in time for the fight at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. In anticipation of the rush of hungry travelers later in the day, hotel people were putting their emergency lunch counters into commission this morning, and piles of edibles were displayed in the shed-like structures.

The fight fans found little to amuse them today. It was very quiet at the fighters' camps. Both men did a little light work in the trim and devoted the rest of their time to assuring their friends that they were supremely confident of victory. The camps were on display all day and the usual line of curious onlookers lined the fences whenever one of the principals showed himself.

Little Change in Betting.
There has been little change in the betting, lots of Johnson-to-win money at 2 to 1 being offered, with no takers to speak of.

The board at the betting headquarters shows few recorded wagers. The Flynn supporters make an offer of $300 to $500 and do not appear anxious to get their money down at less than the three to one rate. One freak bet, 30 to 50, that Johnson will knock Flynn down before the fourth round, is recorded and immediately below it comes the legend:

"30 to 40 he does not."

As a commentary on these bets the following explanation is written on the board:

"A man on his knees is considered down, and if struck, wins the fight."

Bets Placed on Eleventh Round.
As to the round betting, the 11th appears to be favored for the termination of the fight, probably because the 11th round of the last Johnson-Flynn bout proved to be the fireman's undoing.

Most of the tomorrow bettors, however, are down on the 14th to 17th, with a scattering fire from the seventh to the 25th of 40.

As an appetizer to the big show tomorrow, Stanley Younkman, of Dallas, and "Boer" Unholz, of Denver, who fall somewhere near the lightweight class, will try out promoter Curley's canvas-walled arena tonight. It is a scheduled 20 round bout and probably will draw an unusually select fight audience, as there are a good number of sporting notables waiting for the big fight who will not overlook a chance to watch the little men work.

Johnson to Weigh in at 212.
It is Johnson's announced plan to enter the ring tomorrow weighing 212 pounds. The champion's trainers in announcing his weight yesterday at 214, explained that he could go into the ring at 210 if necessary. They do not consider it necessary, however, to take off the extra two pounds.

Flynn expects to fight at about 150 pounds. He has said for a week or so that he would weigh from 135 to 150 and probably would try for the latter medium. Despite the one-sided look of the betting board, Flynn appears confident that he can surprise the champion beyond measure tomorrow on his improved form since they last met. He makes no particular prediction as to

FIGHT ENTHUSIASM APPEARSON THE WANE

Not So Many Going to Las Vegas as Was Expected to Go.

Enthusiasm of local "fight fans" over the Johnson-Flynn bout at Las Vegas Thursday, has developed at the 11th hour to have been premature. Local railroad men think not more than 50 persons will leave El Paso Wednesday night for the scene of conflict.

At first the negro element in El Paso came forward with a proposition to secure 100 tickets and charter a special train. But it is not expected that a score of negroes will leave on the night's train. Then a petition was circulated among business men for the purpose of securing a special train. Not more than 20 names were secured.

On the Santa Fe regular train, special cars will be added Wednesday night. The train will leave El Paso at 7:05, arriving in Albuquerque at 8:30 a. m. to make connections there with the fight special. Arrival at Las Vegas will be made at about noon.

SPECIAL CAR TO TAKE ELKS TO LAS CRUCES

El Paso Lodge Ball Team to Play the Valley Team Thursday.

The Elks' baseball team and rooters will occupy a special car on the train leaving here at 9 o'clock Thursday morning for Las Cruces, N. M. The citizens of that place have promised the local Elks a royal entertainment in the form of a barbecue, music and dancing. Thursday afternoon the Elks' team will cross bats with a Las Cruces team.

John Cain, deputy county clerk, and an Elk, will appear as the slab artist for the Elk team. Cain stated that during the past few days he had manufactured a couple of spit balls that was something of a Chinese puzzle, and he did not think the Las Cruces ball team could connect with it.

WHAT S.S.S. STANDS FOR

The familiar letters, S. S. S., stand for Swift's Sure Specific, a name honestly and fairly earned by a great blood remedy. The majority of physical afflictions are caused by bad blood, because a weak, polluted circulation deprives the system of its necessary strength and disease-resisting powers. S. S. S. cures every disorder which comes from weak or diseased blood, it tones up and regulates every portion of the system, and creates an abundant supply of nourishing properties which permeate the circulation and bring health to the body. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, which are also possessed of great tonic properties. It does not contain a particle of mineral or other harmful drug, and is therefore the purest and safest blood medicine for young or old. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, and is therefore the purest and safest blood medicine for young or old. S. S.
